

GRAPHIC SHORT STORY PRIZE 2020

ARE YOU AN ASPIRING GRAPHIC NOVELIST?

DO YOU HAVE AN ORIGINAL STORY TO TELL?

Jonathan Cape and Comica have got together with the Observer to offer you the chance to see your work in print and win £1,000.

Take this opportunity to get your work read by industry experts. The judges are Steven Appleby (author), Neel Mukherjee (author), Rachel Cooke (Observer), Dan Franklin (Jonathan Cape), Paul Gravett (Director, Comica Festival) and Suzanne Dean (Creative Director, Vintage).

The first prize is £1,000 and publication in the Observer New Review.

The runner-up will receive £250 and their work will appear on theguardian.com

Deadline for entries: Friday 6th November

To enter, and to read the terms and conditions, visit capegraphicshortstoryprize.co.uk

COMICA
LONDON INTERNATIONAL COMICS FESTIVAL

In association with
The Observer